

Synthetic Oboe Reed Prototype Review

with

Guy Legere

President of Légère Reeds

Christoph Hartmann

Berlin Philharmonic Oboist

Monday 13th April 2015

Howarth of London

31-37 Chiltern St, London W1U 7PN

oboe@howarth.uk.com +44 (0)20 7935 2407

Test the new Légère synthetic oboe reed prototype - this is a chance for you to give Légère your feedback on the design and response of this revolutionary reed before it is put into production.

Légère reeds are made from a special polymer compound with a very fine microtexture. They have low density, so that they float, like cane reeds. Because of the microtexture, Légère can machine very fine tips for the fantastic response you would expect from a great reed.

howarth.uk.com

