Ebonite

The thirty-something saxophonist has been making waves since his debut album 'Brother Stoon' in 2013, then with "Interference" or with the quartet with 'Fireworks' in 2015. Baptiste's early influences included Cannonball Adderley and he practices traditional Malagasy music as well as classical composers such as Debussy, Ravel and Bach. His latest album 'Dreams & Connections' explores his love of Brazilian popular music. Baptiste will be demonstrating the new S+ Chamber in the V16 Vandoren Range here at Howarth of London!

The new S+ chamber is the next step in the evolution of the V16 alto mouthpiece. It offers a richer depth of sound while keeping the free-blowing nature and projection that characterize the V16 alto models. The S+ chamber accommodates more air providing the musician greater flexibility and a wider array of colors with which to work.
